THE CARRIER

1955

THE SENIOR CLASS

MIDDLEBURG HIGH SCHOOL
Middleburg, North Carolina

Foreword

The Carrier Pigeon is beautiful and white;
He never grows weary of his long flight.
We hope this CARRIER will always fly
Through a clear, sun-lit and cloudless sky.
May each page bring memories of the past
Of school days that hurried by so fast.

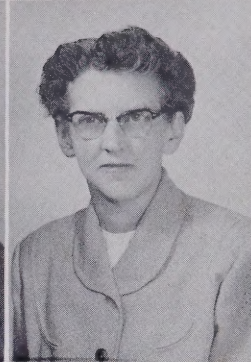

Dedication

MISS MARY E. YOUNG

To Miss Young, who worked so tirelessly to prepare us for high school and who always encouraged us to do everything of which we were capable, we dedicate this edition of the CARRIER as a token of our gratitude for all the help she has been to us.

Class History

Now let me see--when did our class of '55' start our tour of M.H. S.? Oh yes, it was in 1943. We have had many wonderful guides to guide us through these years of learning and fun, and have made many good friends along the way.

Our first place of interest was the first grade. We had Mrs. Alta Usry as our first guide. She taught us the simple subjects, 'Readin' ', 'Writin' ', and 'Arithmetic'.

The next stop was the second grade with Miss Mozell Ray as our guide.

In the third grade we picked up some more tourist. Including: Charles Franklin, Elsie Roberson, Bill Norwood, Buddy Kearson, Betty Nell Roberson, and Randolph Dickerson. Mrs. George Blum was our guide. She taught us another subject, English.

Our next stopping place was the fourth grade. There our guide, Miss Anna Clark, took a geography book and told us of the rest of the world. Here we picked up Robert Richardson to take the rest of the way of our tour.

In coming to our fifth stop we found we had two guides, Miss Clark and Miss Nannie Burt. Here another tourer, Cora Lee Patterson, joined our party.

On our sixth stop we had Miss Burt again. Vivian Parham and Maxine Van Dyke joined our tour.

At our seventh stop we found out things about English we never knew existed, with Miss Mary Young as our guide. Miss Young took us on an educational tour of Henderson and Raleigh.

Mr. Calvin White (and his meter stick) were our guides in the eighth attraction.

At last--We set our eyes on this wonder spot, High School. We took the name 'Freshmen'. The tour took on a new light from here on. This time we had as our guides Mrs. Mary McColl (English), Mr. Willis Talton (Civics), Mr. Jim Goodman (Health), Mr. E.O. Young (Algebra), Mr. George Blum (Agriculture), and Miss Ailine Mewborn (Home Economics). Mr. Talton was our head guide.

As we went to our next place we were given the name of 'Sophomore'. Here Mr. Fred Lee Hale (History) took Mr. Talton's place and we lost Mr. Jim Goodman. Miss Mewborn was our head guide.

At the next stop they called us 'Juniors'. Here we had a big feast--'Junior-Senior Banquet'. This place included a trip to Washington, D. C. This was crammed with fun and excitement. We brought a highly prized souvenir back with us--'Class Rings'. We had the same guides with Mrs. McColl as our head guide.

The next stop, our 12th and last, was the greatest in our tour. We were called 'Seniors'. This title meant a great deal to us and we started acting a little more the part--dignified. We had the same ones to guide us, with Mrs. McColl as our head guide. Under the direction of Mrs. McColl, we presented our Senior Play, Along Came Charlie, which was a big hit. The Juniors gave us a lovely banquet. After selecting our superlatives and planning our class day exercises we realized that our tour was almost over.

Soon our wonderful tour of M. H. S. will be over and left behind. In our hearts there will always be fond memories of the guides who put up with us, of the many friends we have made, and of the days gone by.

Many thanks to M. H. S. for giving us the privilege of playing and studying and for the most important tour we will ever make.

Historian,
Peggy Duke

Class Prophecy

Would you like to know what will become of the class of '55? If you will just sit back, make yourself comfortable, and listen to my story, I will tell you what you will be seeing and hearing around Middleburg ten years from now. Having erected my crystal ball in my own secret hall where only I may look into the future, I find:

Lorene Arrington--has a new hobby, now she's collecting the safety pins that Jr. (Eugene Jr.) doesn't get to first. I guess you remember when she used to collect pictures, but after the Senior Play of '54 for some reason she changed hobbies.

Shirley Buchan--has taken a temporary job as chief dietitian at Georgia Tech until there is a position open at N. C. State.

Howard Lee Currin--is head coach at Chowan College. Since he took over, all the larger schools have a hard time keeping up with his basketball team. Once a year his J. V.'s are allowed to play Carolina for practice!!!

Peggy Duke--is teaching Business Arithmetic at MHS. She always did like the commercial courses but she is having quite a time keeping up with her class since that certain person isn't in Germany anymore.

Franklin Edwards--has really come up in the world. You should see the size of the Agriculture Building since Franklin took over. (Sorry, Mr. Blum, but after all you had your chance!)

Charles Franklin--is raising a new basketball team for "Carol"ina-----!

Nancy Reavis--is Secretary to N. C.'s Governor--Peoples. She gave up her job with Kochman's Hell Drivers.

Charles Harris--is Vice President of General Motors, and he just spent half a million dollars to have his new car "The Charliac" advertised over Cincinnati.

Robert Richardson--has the lead in Broadway's newest hit comedy---"There Goes Charlie".

Ollie Harris--made his second million on his latest invention "The Mule-A-Matic Muffler".

It has been fun visiting my old classmates. I have more time for visiting now since I gave up my job as typing teacher at Henderson High School to take over as private secretary for a famous recording star.

Last Will And Testament

We the Senior Class of 1955, being about to pass out of this sphere of education, in full possession of a crammed mind, well trained memory, and almost superhuman understanding, wish to leave behind us some token of remembrance and some written document to be sure that our desires and hopes will be carried out after our departure. Fully realizing the nearing end of our school days at Middleburg High School, we do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

To our principal, Mr. E.O. Young, Jr., we bequeath our sincere affection, our deepest reverence, and our heartiest gratitude.
To Mrs. McColl, a larger and quieter English Class.
To Miss Mewborn, our hopes that some day she may have a lab for her biology class.
To Mr. Hale, who could use some new typewriters after the rough time the Seniors gave them this year, we will a dozen new ones.
To Mr. Blum, a long summer vacation so he will be ready for next year's classes.
To Mr. Baingardi, a new gymnasium so he can have a winning basketball team next year.
Lorene Arrington leaves her ability to get a diamond to any of the other girls lucky enough to get one.
Shirley Buchan leaves her "brain" to Ernest Breedlove hoping he will be able to pass and play basketball next year.
Howard Currin wills his mathematical ability to Tommy Hawkins, the only person dumb enough to want it.
Joan Davis leaves politeness to any of the Juniors wise enough to accept it.
Peggy Duke leaves her bus to Edward Best, who seems to know how to drive it so well.
Franklin Edwards leaves his Ford to Frank and Joe Edwards hoping they will be able to fix the horn.
Charles Franklin wills his athletic ability to Charlie Wynne, although he really doesn't need it.
Charles Harris leaves his wise cracking ways to Buddy Young.
Ollie Harris leaves his mechanical ability to Frank and Joe Edwards.
Nancy Reavis wills her French ability to anyone crazy enough to want it.
Robert Richardson leaves his quiet ways to Babara King.

Signed and published by the above named as their Last Will and Testament.
Witnessed by Mrs. Mary McColl.
